

PROGRAMME

28th August – JOHN SCOTT QC on PRESTWICK AIRPORT, HUMAN RIGHTS AND RENDITION

Solicitor Advocate John Scott QC will talk about the role of Prestwick airport in illegal rendition, the role of the police and the Crown Office and the human rights implications for Scots Law.

4th September – CAMPBELL DEANE on LAW & THE MEDIA

Media Law specialist Campbell Deane of Bannatyne Kirkwood & France will discuss the role of the media, the Sheridan case, televising court and the adequacy of the current law in the light of The Leveson Inquiry and operation Rubicon

11th September – DONALD FINDLAY QC on CRIMINAL DEFENCE ADVOCACY

Renowned criminal defender Donald Findlay QCF will discuss his life and career representing defenders in cases as diverse as the Glasgow Rape Case to Luke Mitchell

18th September - RICHARD SIMPSON on ONLINE & MEDIA BRANDING FOR LAWYERS

Marketing and branding specialist Richard Simpson of Tayburn discusses redesigning your businesses from the inside out to respond with agility to the fast changing needs of colleagues, clients and communities.

25th September – PROFESSOR ROBERT BLACKL QC on THE ONGOING LEGACY OF THE PAN AM 103 TRIAL

Architect of the Pan Am 103 trial and member of the Justice for Megrahi committee, Professor Robert Black QC discusses what the Pan Am 103 case has done to the law and what roads lie ahead for justice.

9th October – WARREN WANDER - CLOUD COMPUTING & THE NEW LANDSCAPE FOR LAWYERS

Cloud solutions for lawyers and making safe, profitable use of technology.

16th October – DAVID HOEY on EMPLOYMENT UPDATE – RECIDIVISM AND PERSPECTIVE ON PRISON REFORM

Employment law specialist David Hoey of Brechin Tindall Oats on his experiences mentoring inside Barlinnie.

6th November – ALAN SUSSKIND on COLLABORATIVE LAW

Professor Alan Susskind looks at the collaborative law network that could see the end of the adversarial litigation system.

13th November – JANET HOOD on VICTORIA KEY AND THE LUNACY OF LICENSING

Licensing specialist Janet Hood looks at the skewed approach of the Scottish Government in its approach to tackling drinking at the expense of publicans, retailers and the public.

20th November – STEPHEN MCGOWAN on TRANSLATING SOCIAL MEDIA & PERSONAL BRANDING INTO BUSINESS

Stephen McGowan, a Licensing specialist, winner of the Chairman's Award at the Law Awards of Scotland and winner of the Rising Start of the Year at the Scottish Legal Awards 2012 on the new media landscape for lawyers.

For more information contact Gavin Bryans, Commercial Manager of The Firm Magazine on 0141 404 3467 or Gavin@firmmagazine.com

All events take place within Macroberts, Capella Building, 60 York Street, Glasgow, G2 8JX at 5.15pm
0141 404 3467